

Store manager Marsha Nisky says the store chose a "tight group of brands."

SHOP IT

Style in numbers

Eleven boutique is the perfect place to scope out the best Canadian designers under one roof. This trendy shop at 116 Cumberland St. in Yorkville carries the crème de la crème of Canadian fashion.

"Eleven caters to those who are looking for something unique," says store manager Marsha Nisky. "We have chosen a very tight group of brands which work very well to complement one another."

Eleven carries Lundström, Pink Tartan, Joeffer Caoc, Obakki, Nada, and Project Runway Canada's Lucian Matis and Brandon R. Dwyer. The boutique also showcases Canadian jewellery lines Carla Wax, Shay Lowe, Karen McClintock, and Irma.

Our favourite items include: a Lundström "spy" trench coat ($459), Pink Tartan embellished tank top ($195), Obakki jersey asymmetric top ($129), Joeffer Caoc print silk dress ($589), and Nada white cotton tunic ($389).

From www.Livedress.com — the easy way to find, review and share the hottest fashions in the city.